Erin Dixon

Principal Advisory Council Parent Representative Candidate

My name is Erin Dixon, a mother of two daughters at Dunwoody High School. I also am a teacher who taught at Peachtree Charter Middle School last year and served as the DHS Girls JV Lacrosse coach. I am passionate about the students within our schools and the parents, teachers, and administration that support them. After a year within DeKalb County Schools, I plan to bring my knowledge of both the strengths and weaknesses faced by all parties to advocate for them within the Principal Advisory Council. This year find me substituting within the school district and volunteering at DHS.

Patrick Dodson

Principal Advisory Council Parent Representative Candidate

I am a 20 year resident of DeKalb County with two daughters who've attended Vanderlyn, Peachtree, and DHS. I've volunteered on multiple church, civic and professional activities including community service, board of directors, and administrative roles. I would apply these experiences to create a strong understanding of how we can improve our student achievement and performance, create new ideas to implement, and provide accountability to track our success.

Michelle Fincher

Principal Advisory Council Parent Representative Candidate

My name is Michelle Fincher and I am seeking a position on the Parent Advisory Council. We are a new, old family to Dunwoody High, having had a DHS 2013 graduate, and presently a Freshman. During my 15+ years as a DCSD parent in the Dunwoody cluster, I have served in numerous roles on PTOs at Vanderlyn, PCMS, and Kittredge. I believe a safe and healthy school provides the best environment for students to learn and succeed, and I am deeply vested in the future of DHS and our community as a place where our students can grow and thrive.

I have served as a board member for the past 30 years in two organizations, Swan Center Outreach (501-C-3 nonprofit that rescues horses) and Swan Center for Intuitive Living, an educational facility. I would be honored to serve!
