

Explosion of Pickleball

Level B

Pickleball is a sport that has become super popular in the past few years. It's a game that combines elements of tennis, badminton, and pingpong. The court is smaller than a tennis court and the net is lower, so it's easier to play. You use a plastic ball and a paddle to hit the ball over the net. One of the reasons why pickleball has become so popular is because it's easy to learn and you don't need to be super athletic to play. You can play at your own pace and have fun regardless of your fitness level. It's also a social sport that brings people together and builds community.

Pickleball has exploded in popularity all across the United States. In fact, over 36 million Americans have played pickleball in the past year. It's a sport that people of all ages can enjoy, from grandparents playing with their grandchildren to professional athletes like LeBron James and Tom Brady. Pickleball is a sport that can be played with friends and family, and it's a great way to have fun and get active together. It's also a sport that is easy to pick up and play, so you can start having fun right away.

With the explosion of pickleball, there have been some challenges as well. Some cities are experiencing turf wars as players compete for limited recreational space. There have also been noise complaints from residents living close to pickleball courts. But despite these challenges, pickleball continues to grow in popularity. More and more people are discovering the fun and excitement of this fast-paced game. Whether you're a beginner or a pro, pickleball is a sport that anyone can enjoy. So grab a paddle and a ball, and get ready to join the pickleball craze!