Fall is Here.. Pumpkins!

Dear Foodie and Traveler.

I am sitting here in Chapel Hill, NC on a beautiful Fall day. Tonight's class is at Southern Seasons a remarkable store that is hard to describe, its part party store, part food, no produce, candy and items that you will not find anywhere else!

I have a few stories to share so read and I hope you enjoy..

We are closing on the second week of France. We only have a few spots left and I will not be able to add another week as the villa is taken. Check out the information and see what you think.. It is May 10th-16th, 2015. Doubles only.

See you on the Road!
George

America's Prom

Couple

I few months ago I received an email from a former student...

*Hi there, I'm emailing to request a brochure for your France 2015 tour. This also gives me an opportunity to tell you how you have influenced my life.....Several years ago I took a breakfast breads class with you at CooksWarehouse in Decatur, Ga. I learned to make your famous cinnamon roll recipe with vanilla pudding mix in the dough. I made them for a school fundraiser- my special needs high school students run a coffee shop in our classroom once a week. Years later, our little coffee shop has grown into a big business. The cinnamon rolls continue to be a huge hit! Thank you! Carol E. Gage

Well while I was in Atlanta this past week I had to go past and meet up with Carol and the students.. The past few weeks had been very busy for all of them. They had been featured on the local news about the program and you can watch it here:

And the Friday evening prior two of the students were voted Prom King and Queen. You may have seen them on the National Nightly News. While walking to the kitchen with the Promo Queen Hannah and Prom King Gus I was overwhelmed at the response of the other students in the hallways... Still a week later telling them congrats, high fives, and how great they looked on TV... I have to hand it to Carol and her program..

You never know how and where you will change the world.

Now here is the recipe for you to make a difference! It was also what I made on the pilot show for ABC's Mike and Maty

France 2015

Many times I am asked why I became a Pastry Chef. To see the happiness in faces of people when they have tried something I have made, or I had been apart of their celebrations with a wedding cake or birthday cake.

For 20 seasons and over 300 people I have witnessed this excitement of life-changing happiness by showing them the food, art and culture of France. It changes your life and the way you look at food and also the French. I sell out every year and this year I sold out in 2 weeks. I have added another week with a special guest food photographer as an added value. We will go and do all of the same places as the all foodie tour, but if you would like we will also set up how to use your camera for food, vacation, landscape and other medias of photography.

From small quaint villages, to the Cannes Film Festival to Artisan Food Shops.. We have it all on this trip. Cooking Classes to candy factories to perfume factory tours!

Truly you will not want to miss this. Who knows.. if you wait it maybe too late and it maybe my last year!
